MINISTRY OF IRRIGATION AND POWER

New Delhi, the 8th April 1958

(Service Rules of the Chairman, Members, Secretary and Financial Adviser of the Damodar Valley Corporation)

G.S.R. 260.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 59 of the Damodar Valley Corporation Act, 1948 (14 of 1948), the Central Government hereby makes the following further amendments to the rules published with the notification of the Government of India in the late Ministry of Works, Mines and Power No. DW-III-A-4(7) Dam, dated the 23rd April, 1948, namely:—

In the said rules—

I. Rule 1 shall be renumbered as rule 2, and before the rule as so renumbered and the heading above it, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

"1. These rules may be called the Damodar Valley Corporation Rules, 1948."

II. For the existing Rules 9 and 9A, the following shall be substituted:

"9(1) The Chairman, the Members, the Secretary and the Financial Adviser who are not Government servants will be entitled to the benefit of the Contributory Provident Fund of the Corporation to which the Corporation shall contribute an amount equal to the contribution paid by the subscriber, subject to a maximum of $6\frac{1}{4}$ per cent upto the 31st August, 1957 and $8\frac{1}{3}$ per cent thereafter. The Contributory Provident Fund Rules (Damodar Valley Corporation) made under Section 60 of the Damodar Valley Corporation Act, 1948 shall, so far as may be, apply in relation to the Chairman, the Members, the Secretary and the Financial Adviser who are subscribers to the Fund as they apply in relation to the officers and servants of the Corporation, subject to the condition that the powers exercisable by the Corporation to grant advances from the fund under Rule 12 and to direct deductions from the account standing to the credit of a subscriber in the fund under rule 19 of the said rules shall, be exercised by the Central Government.

- (2) The benefits of the Contributory Provident Fund of the Corporation shall not be admissible to re-employed personnel who are in receipt of any retirement benefits from the Government in the form of pension or Contributory Provident Fund. They may, however, be permitted to join the Fund and contribute to it but shall not be eligible to the Corporation's contribution."

Explanatory Note

According to the existing Rule 9 of the Rules issued under Section 59 of the Damodar Valley Corporation Act, the Chairman, Members, Secretary and Financial Adviser of the Corporation who are not Government servants are entitled to the benefit of a Contributory Provident Fund. It has since been decided that this Contributory Provident Fund shall be the Contributory Provident Fund of the Corporation. The Rules of the Contributory Provident Fund of the Corporation shall apply as far as may be, in relation to the Chairman, Members, Secretary and Financial Adviser of the Corporation. However, the power exercisable by the Corporation under rules 12 and 19 of the Rules relating to the grant of advances and the making of deductions from the amounts standing in the fund in the names of the subscribers will be reserved to the Central Government.

Under the existing Rule 9, the Corporation shall contribute an amount equal to the contribution paid by the subscriber, subject to a maximum of $6\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. A general decision has been taken by the Government of India that in the case of their employees, the limit of the Government's contribution shall be increased from $6\frac{1}{2}$ per cent to $8\frac{1}{3}$ per cent with effect from 1st September, 1957. It has been decided to make this decision applicable in the case of the Chairman, Members, Secretary and Financial Adviser of the Damodar Valley Corporation who are subscribers to the Contributory Provident Fund.

The amendments now being made are for the purpose of carrying out the above decisions.
